Description :

PDF-1d09f | "I have told you nothing about man that is not true."

You must pardon me if I repeat that remark now and then in these letters; I want you to take seriously the things I am telling you, and I feel that if I were in your place and you in mine, I should need that reminder from time to time, to keep my credulity from flagging. In Letters from the Earth, Twain presents himself as the Father of History ... Letters from the Earth: Uncensored Writings (Perennial Classics)
