Description :

PDF-5f491 | The Carlyles lived at the heart of English life in mid-Victorian London, but both were outsiders. A largely self-educated pair from Scotland, they often took a caustic look at the society they so influenced—Thomas through his writings and both through their network of acquaintances and correspondents. Thomas would write about matters of the day, while Jane would tell tales of everything from tur... Thomas & Jane Carlyle: Portrait of a Marriage
